We empower people

Dear TUT Community,

The Faculty of Arts & Design has recently been awarded a Research Niche area, titled Artivism as a tool to combat Gender-Based Violence. This is a critical area for development and research as the scourge is highly prevalent in higher education institutions.

As we embark on the research in this niche area we hereby invite any member of the TUT Community, staff, post-graduate students, doctoral candidates or industry partners that you might know of who would like to be part of this research niche area to send communication to LegwaseO@tut.ac.za or call 012 382 6132 not later than 1 December 2023.
